STUART BENSON

DIRECTOR & AUCTIONEER

A born and raised life-long resident of the Hills District, Stu began his real estate career in 2001, and after seeing a need for a dedicated and professional auction service in Sydney's booming North West he launched Benson Auctions in 2010. Stu's auction experience is unrivalled, and he is fast approaching 10,000 auction calls. One of the industry's most notable influencers, speakers and trainers, he's backed and booked by some of the biggest brands and names in real estate, who together they lay claim to countless street, suburb and area records.

Calling auctions in the Hills Shire, Northern Suburbs and The Hawkesbury, it's Stu's strategy and style which immediately sets him apart from other auctioneers. A natural performer with a commanding voice and quick wit, not only does he ensure that the bidding starts where it should, he confidently dictates bidding increments at each and every auction, maintaining control of the flow and the tempo at all times whilst keeping those in attendance entertained, engaged, comfortable and confident.

When it comes to selling your most valuable asset, be it residential or commercial, it's critical that the person representing you on auction day is tried, tested and experienced. There's a reason your agent has partnered with Benson Auctions for your property sale!

A familiar face to television audiences since appearing on Channel Nine's hit reality series 'The Block' whilst representing fan favourites Ayden & Jess, Stu secured their apartment $665,000 above its reserve! To date, this result ranks as the 6th highest ever profit in the show's 16 season, 18 year, 72 property history!

A Finalist in 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020 and 2021, Stu was awarded the industry's top honour when he was named the 2018 REB Australian Auctioneer of the Year. A regular on the charity auction circuit, Stu continues to help raise hundreds of thousands of dollars annually for charities like HeartKids, The Children's Hospital at Westmead, Beyond Blue and Black Dog Institute to name but a few.

Stu's business ethos is "Trust The Process", and it is this mantra that has cemented his profile within the industry. Any day, any time, trust your agent and the auction process to deliver an unconditional sale via transparent and competitive bidding, with no ceiling or limit to what can be achieved.

Just make sure you book Stu, too!
